

Victoria Casey QC

Thorndon Chambers

I have a broad civil litigation practice with a particular focus on public law and the interface between public and commercial law. My areas of practice include regulatory and competition litigation and investigations, administrative law and judicial review across a wide range of government agencies and statutory bodies, human rights, health and safety, environmental law, extradition, negligence, inquests, inquiries and Crown liability. I am experienced in managing major complex litigation, and also in the effective use and defence of injunctions and other urgent applications.

I joined the independent bar in 2012, following five years as Crown Counsel with the Crown Law Office's Human Rights and Tax & Commercial Teams. I became QC in 2016. I have previously worked for Bell Gully (Auckland and Wellington offices), Meredith Connell (Auckland) and Sly and Weigall (Canberra). I have spent time on secondment with the Commerce Commission and with Australian Defence Industries.

I am an approved legal aid provider for civil and appellate work in the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court.
